Department of the Interior

Washington, Sept. 14, 1891.

Mr. R. U. Johnson,
Associate Editor,
Century Magazine,
Union Square, N. Y. City,
New York.

Sir:

In further reply to yours of July 7th, I have to say the question of timber reserves is receiving earnest attention and Mr. Muir's suggestions would be very timely, if you can send me an advance copy.

I return photo of cutting a Sequoia.

With thanks,

Yours truly,

John W. Noble,

Secretary.
